Matt Caragher and Saige Peckens

Matthew is a dynamic kindergarten student who loves learning! He sets goals to achieve for himself and is eager accept any challenge given to him. Matthew is always prepared for class and follows all our routines with ease. He is kind, respectful, and caring. He has a great sense of humor and is always willing to help teachers and students. Matthew is respectful of not only his teachers and his friends, but to all at LCS and all the "things", we have in our school too. With his hard work, upbeat attitude and patience, we are very privileged to watch him make some great gains and help foster his learning. Thanks Matthew for loving school and for being such a model student!

Saige Peckens enters the classroom each day with a smile on his face and a greeting for everyone. He gets right to work, but manages to touch base with many of his classmates to see how they are every morning. He looks out for his friends, always ready to help them carry something, organize their things or to help them find the answer to the questions.

Saige works hard throughout the day to get his work done and always does his best. He pays attention during circle and often has his hand up ready to join in the conversation. He loves listening to our stories and gets involved with the characters. Saige is a wonderful role model for his classmates, always following directions and our classroom rules, often reminding others to do the same. He looks out for his friends if there is a problem and usually has suggestions for solving them. He is a kind young man and eager to learn. He is proud of himself when he succeeds, but ready to learn from his mistakes also.

Saige is a caring and thoughtful young man. I am happy to have him in our classroom and have enjoyed watching him grow and learn throughout the year.
