January 2019 Student of the Month

Colby Kenney Grade 1

I am overjoyed to nominate Colby Kenney for the Student of the Month!

Colby is a focused student. He goes above and beyond grade level expectations. He is a leader in the classroom and does a great job modeling our classroom rules and routines.

He loves reading and has a great way of making his characters come to life when he reads with expression. He is also a proficient writer. He enjoys writing about his experiences with nature. His latest story about chickens was not only informative, but exciting when the hawk came to visit the chicken coop! He also adds very detailed illustrations to his writing and produces handwriting of exceptional quality.

Congratulations Colby! Your effort in the classroom and the pride you put into your work make you a star!
