

WLC Athletic Hall of Fame

The WLC Athletic Hall of Fame is kicking off its first year by naming its Inaugural Inductees in the spring of 2023! The committee is made up of WLC Athletic Stakeholders and includes:

- Ken Garnham, longtime coach and educator at WLC
- Katie Gosselin, current Assistant Principal and Athletic Director
- Sarah Edmunds, current Principal and Athletic Director
- Linda Draper, current Administrative Assistant and Athletic Director and WLC Alumni
- Bill Draper, long time coach and WLC Alumni
- Fran Bujak, long time WLC coach, former School Board Member, and Lyndeborough Resident
- Walter Bausha, longtime WLC Athletic community member and WLC Alumni
- Mark Bausha, current coach and WLC Alumni
- Susan Ballou, former WLC Assistant Principal and longtime Lyndeborough Resident

This year we are accepting our first round of Athletic Hall of Fame nominations! Please see information here to make a nomination! The nominations will be due to WLC to Katie Gosselin no later than February 1, 2023.

Nomination forms can be found online to be downloaded and printed at your convenience. If you'd like a paper copy, forms will be available at WLC located at 57 School Road in Wilton, NH.

FAQs:

1. How long will a nomination be considered active? Three Years. After three years of consideration, the person remains eligible to be nominated again.
2. How do we celebrate the Inaugural Inductees? This year we will be hosting a special announcement in conjunction with our Spring Sports Night to be held at WLC.
3. Who should I nominate? Anyone whom you believe was an invaluable member of the WLC Athletics Program is eligible! This includes athletes, coaches, teams, and sports contributors!
4. I am interested in being on the Hall of Fame Committee- what do I do? Please reach out to Katie Gosselin or Linda Draper at WLC at 603-732-9230 to determine if the committee has any vacancies.
5. Can I nominate a person who has passed away? Absolutely, we believe it is important to commemorate our loved ones who have given the WLC Community amazing athletic memories.