

KFA - PUBLIC CONDUCT ON SCHOOL PROPERTY/ASSAULTS

Violence of any kind and to any degree will not be tolerated on school grounds.

The Wilton-Lyndeborough Cooperative School Board encourages the prosecution of any person who commits assault and/or battery upon a school employee or student. The Board also encourages the prosecution of any person who threatens another and places an employee or student in immediate fear of bodily harm while the employee or student is in the performance of his duties as a school or student.

"School employee" is hereby defined to include any duly appointed person or employee of a firm contracting with a school system for any purpose, including personnel not directly related to the teaching process and including School Board members during School Board meetings.
